Great and Useful Invention.

No more Mortality for want of Water.

Sure wealth to Estancieros

By the Roberts Apparatus.

Being notorious the immense injury occasioned by the scarcity of water during the long (secas) that afflict the Campos of Buenos Ayres, I have determined to dedicate to the Estancieros an Apparatus at once simple and infallible for procuring as much water as they may require 120 Bordaeses per hour (it seems fabulous) is procured with my apparatus, without fear of at any time its getting out of order.

This machine is worked by one horse and in one day's work can give 4 to Bordaleses; I at 10 sts. sufficient water for 20,000 head of cattle.

By these figures can be calculated the immense advantages gained by its use.

Another advantage is the facility of putting it together and taking it to pieces, so as to be able to transport it to any place where it may be necessary to use it. either for watering purposes or others.

GREAT MODIFICATION.

I have made an improvement in my Apparatus, applying a new system which reduces the necessary force two thirds, giving it at the same time more rapidity.

Those interested can see it at Calle Moreno, No. 346 (Henerrado, Paris).

One sole inspection of the Apparatus will prove to them the superiority of it over any other. ROBERT.

TUESDAY, MARCH 22. 1864.

IMPENDING CRISIS.

There is a sort of artificial prosperity going on in Buenos Ayres which is beginning to attract general attention. Each day we read of the arrivals of foreign vessels with costly assorted cargoes. Every week we have a ship or two consigned to Mr. Manuel Haedo with railway iron and coke for the Western Railway. Every steamer brings in its quota of respectable young men who are consumers, not producers. Lottery ticket sellers and orange vendors disembark by the hundred from every Italian steamer which comes into port. New splendid houses are going up in every street; fashionable four-wheel waggons are purchased by almost every swell in town. The man who left Buenos Ayres a year ago, and returns to-day, stares at the giant progress of the place. Our friend Don Hector, when he returned from Europe, supped at the La Paix, and stated that a better served supper could not be found in London, Paris, or even Baden Baden. If the industry of the country could only keep pace with the monstrous extravagance then there would be less room for our remarks; but unfortunately whilst we are all becoming more fashionable, the staples of the country are the same, or if anything diminishing. Owing to the drought last year, our wool this clip is about the same as that of the previous year, and as for our hides, it is well known amongst the brokers in London and Liverpool that our hide exports have greatly fallen off.

Now we are prepared to prove that Government is encouraging the Western Railway from Moreno to Luxan, causes the paper dollar to depreciate, and thereby robs the country.

That every new house built in Buenos Ayres drives another into the street, consequently adds to the desertion of the city.

That every lottery ticket man or fruit vendor who spends his time wandering through this city selling his wares causes paper money to fall still further and further.

That the four-wheeler waggon sellers and the coke trade would be one of the greatest bulls for driving up ounces that can be found in this city, and that the Baden Baden suppers are converting the paper dollars into French assignats.

It will be asked how can the extension of the Western Railway depreciate the currency? Because this country cannot yet afford to build railroads unless upon foreign capital. A Government whose 6 per cent bonds are still lying in the treasury department although issued years ago, which although it (surprise a great) has the confidence of the public, has greater credit abroad than at home—such a Government has no right to invest in railways or patronising manufactures, because if it imports bar iron or coke it has nothing but paper dollars to give in payment, which being useless compels the Minister to go hat in hand round to borrow ounces, thereby causing an increased demand for specie, and a consequent depreciation of paper.

Why is it that ounces are 470 to-day? Is it because a revolution is brewing? No. Is it because President Mitre is detested, and enjoys neither confidence nor credit? No, on the contrary there never was a man in this country receiving his position more respected and esteemed by us foreigners than Bartholomew Mitre.

No, it is because Buenos Ayres is what is technically called going ahead; paper money is falling because we import more than we can pay for; because there are more consumers than producers; the more business we do the more the paper dollar will suffer; the more houses we build the greater will be the rise in specie, because first the laborers consume, don't produce; and next, capital becomes locked up when it is most essential that it should be kept floating.

Railways built in this country, on foreign capital, are of the very highest advantage, and tend to give increased value to our paper money, whilst, on the contrary, those built by the Government on a bank loan of paper dollars, is in operation so nearly approaching what would be termed in England a swindle, that we hardly know how to define it by so proper name here.

Mr. Haedo is importing this year, say one hundred thousand pounds sterling worth of English goods. Very well, what is he going to repay the English manufacturer? Oh! he draws on the Minister The Minister goes to Mr. Leslie of the Union Bank, and gets exchange. The Caja de Moneda pays Mr. Leslie, but who pays the Caja, de Moneda? Mercedes, Lujan, the whole business is an imposture, for we have received one hundred thousand pounds sterling from England, and we have paid, we, all bides of wool, that they are all exhausted, but simply by what is called 'raising the wind' the paper dollars are in better circulation, goes down, specie goes up, and the infatuated native says, 'Good God, look what times are.' If business is as brisk this year as last, ounces will most assuredly be five hundred before the 31st December next, and they cannot come down, unless we either increase our exports or diminish our imports.

The outer and inner roads are crowded with shipping; in fact, the number of ships at present in port is greater, that has hardly fits in the 'Standard.' What is the matter with Buenos Ayres is going ahead tremendously, paper money is going down horribly, and the whole country drifting fast to hopeless bankruptcy.

People who want to know the price of ounces, should look rather to Mr. Maxwell's than to the Bolsa, than at the black board of the Bolsa.

Freights are so low at present, that there is a full cargo of hides and wool for Antwerp, does not even pay the gentleman's wages home; and yet ounces Ayres is said to be progressing. If it is, so also is the paper depreciating, and Governor Saavedra should sell the Western Railway for paper money, and allow the proceeds into the Bureau. This would be a move in the right direction; but with such a man as M. Domingnez, as Minister, this is not to be hoped for.

THE 'UNION' PIRATES.

In the month of November 1862 one of the most horrible tragedies ever enacted filled the minds of our citizens with alarm. The boat's crew of the 'Union' were all barbarously murdered in cold blood, as is supposed while they were asleep, by three ruffians, for the sake of some clothes and other articles in the boat: the scene of the crime was the river Parana, near Rosario, and the pirates having escaped to the islands, all hope of just retribution was abandoned. Nevertheless the zealous captain of the Port of Rosario set out in pursuit of them, and captured them in an island, bringing them back to Ensea. One of the party confessed, and the guilt of the accused being proved none, two of them were condemned to be shot, and the third to undergo penal servitude.

The crime exceeded in atrocity even that subsequently perpetrated on board the Flecha, and it is to be hoped even more have just died on the gallows. There was not a single extenuating feature, and if ever assassins merited death, it was in this case. Moreover, the murder was what Spanish law denies as 'alevoso,' being treacherous and unpremeditated to a degree; the Constitution in such cases, protects the lives of the assassins beyond the Executive attribute of mercy. Yet our Government pardons those who wear the sword of honour to Sandes, in reward for the death of the boy Sol and a series of the most cold blooded butcheries, are ordered to be quick in their work in shooting these pirates; and sooner than deprive society of their services, an ingot of forgiveness is given to each with a commuted sentence for one of them. This two have already escaped from their justice, and in another month will probably release the last.

Three assassins are taken almost in the act, a year and a-half is allowed to elapse during the formalities of trial; and, finally, two are commuted from sentence of death. How much better it would have been to have hung each one. The violation of the Constitution is in our eyes a trifle, but the patronage of assassins by the Executive power is a damning stain upon this country. The other day six notorious assassins were suffered to escape: will not mutilation and death be the result of the painful task of shooting them? Again, last week, we have another murderer spared, as if shedding human blood had ceased to be a crime in Buenos Ayres. If even penal servitude were put in force, we might not despair, but to suppose that these wretches will be released after a few years, convicts either enter military service, or get scot-free before a year.

This manner of things cannot safely go on, nor will it was something similar before a vigilance committee instituted Lynch-law in California. We know that we actually imperil our existence by insisting on the execution of assassins, for a number of them is prowling about, and feels no doubt aggrieved at our remarks. The laws will fall into abeyance if not put in force, and next year every man will be obliged to wear a revolver in his belt, in the streets, if all the murderers are let loose in society. Meantime Mr. Flower in prison, because no one seems to remember him, and self-preservation is worse than murder. Two Italians have been murdered last week at the Lomas de Zamorra, but if he had killed the highwayman he should have been punished worse. The outskirts of the city are quite unsafe, and we do not hesitate to say the cause is so many pardoned murderers, pirates, and cut throats.

EDITOR'S TABLE.

The Mersey leaves on Sunday next. Passengers are requested to be on board before four o'clock. We hear that she will be crowded with passengers, as besides the many residents who with their families are leaving, a batch of young men is expected from Paraguay —twenty-five we hear is the number. These youths are sent by the Paraguayan Government to be educated in England and France at the expense of the State, which speaks volumes for the enlightened policy of President Lopez.

One of the greatest drawbacks which exist in this city is the butcher's shop in our private streets. In Rosario the thing is not allowed, beef can only be sold in the market, but in Buenos Ayres it is the reverse. We can understand butcher's stalls in such a place as the Paseo Julio, as it is impossible that ship masters could be supplied from the market, beside Paseo Julio is an open airy street, but the narrowest and worst ventilated streets in the cheapshops are a decided nuisance; in many parts they bring such a swarm of flies that the neighbours are forcibly ejected. As however there is no one to look after such things the best the neighbours can do is not to purchase from these shopkeepers.

House property in this city has increased in value wonderfully; a sale was made the other day of a house in Calle Mayo, belonging to an old Italian resident; the price realized was almost double what it would have fetched five years ago.

The attempt at highway robbery at the Cinco Esquinas has caused the greatest alarm amongst the inhabitants in that quarter. No traces of the affair whatsoever about the affair until published in the 'Tribuna.' It appears that a gentleman quietly was walking down the street with a little boy when a ruffian attempted to stop him, and threatened to kill the man if he did not give him fifty dollars; upon which the highwayman received a blow between the eyes which sent him reeling into the street. The police as a matter of course were nowhere. Until the municipality the most useless body of paid employees is the police force.

The funeral procession of Mr. Arnold, Mr. Ferror, over the ashes of M. Villanueva, was published yesterday in a rather remote corner of the 'Tribuna.' Had our esteemed friend, Mr. Ferrer, Mitre's speech at the inauguration, we should certainly have felt bound to reproduce it, but as we have not, and give our readers Mr. Ferrer's oration.

The great talk amongst all our big-wigged politicians is the great American Congress meeted in Paris, agreed to by Chile, and signed by all the Powers on the North and South Continent. We have not yet heard where the Congress is to be held, but in general belief is that Panama will be the place. The Argentine representatives have not yet been named: some say Mr. Elizalde is to be one, but many others think we can't get a better man than Forster. As people at home are very much in the dark respecting this Congress, so on the Pacific coast there is nothing else talked of. The question to be considered, and which, ever way the Congress decides, so will rest the future of that country. The next question will be Peru and Chile, which is a sort of Schleswic-Holstein affair to our neighbours.

The Salto arrived from Uruguay, but brings nothing new from the seat of war. In Entre Rios it has ruined a good deal, and the whole province was quite completely ruined by Urquiza. The 1st of April the new bank will be opened and thousands of splendid new bills issued. The bills were lithographed in Buenos Ayres, and as soon as we have new that many people have overcome their prejudices. The bills, we believe, will be unveiled every month; that is to say, they are printed on such a peculiar description of paper that they wear out after a couple of weeks' use. We have not heard who will be the manager.

The saladeristas are now all hard at work up the river, and cattle are coming in fast, in Entre Rios particularly; also in Corrientes cattle are fat and cheap, and the business pays well. In Santa Fe and the Banda Oriental, the estancieros have too great pretensions, and ask ten dollars for a novillo.

Who has got a file of the 'Times?' A French lady is anxious to pay a handsome reward for being permitted to look over it.

A terrible row occurred on the Mole on Sunday evening, between a sailor and a policeman, resulting in the guardian of the law being completely routed. The sailor, although not to say drunk, for he was not, was suspended in Dublin as) powerfully refreshed.

FRESH PRESERVED BEEF.

At a time when dried beef from Montevideo is opening up a new market in Great Britain, it behoves saladeristas to devote their attention to the best means of introducing it in good condition to the working classes of this country. We have heard of the Oildan beef, and tasted that prepared by the Liz of Corrientes; but both have defects. Latest advices from England inform us that the first, however good in taste and smell, is objectionable from the uncomely manner in which it is made up and preserved, although having an excellent flavour, smells very strongly.

Mr. Henry Jaeggli, brother to our well known watch maker, has arrived from Switzerland, bringing some samples of his new and improved system. The case is to be exhibited at the Exhibition that country on September 3rd, and shipped at Havre, on board the Akyab, for Buenos Ayres. We have seen the exhibition at this office, a piece of the beef, which looks as fresh as if killed yesterday. The inventor tells us that his system is so simple as to require no machinery, and is almost free of expense. It is not, therefore, an idle flattery to say this will be a great boon for the La Plata Estates. Gilmour, of Glasgow, find such ready disposal at 2d. per lb., as to cause an order for several cwt., how much more general would be the consumption at reduced prices, especially when the meat preserves its natural appearance. A saladero in Entre Rios that introduced at once preparing 1 cwt. for exportation to England. It is to be observed, by the extent saladeristas have experienced all the rigor of an unusually hot summer.

FIRE IN VALPARAISO

Since the short notice, published in our paper of Sunday, we have heard the following particulars:—

The fire broke out on the night of the 22d ult., at half-past eleven, and by four, a.m. several houses were consumed. The English and American fire brigades acted with their usual daring and dexterity, and luckily, the strong south wind, which prevailed at the time of the year, was absent at the time, else the effects of the firemen could not have prevented a repetition of a conflagration like that of November, 1858. It is calculated that the property destroyed amounts to 250,000 silver dollars, the half of which is insured.

The following is a list of the houses burned:—

IN CALLE DE LA ARDANA.

F. Huth, Grunning, and Co., store and dwelling-house.

Green, Nicholson, and Co., store.

Thomas Cockburn, store.

Orsaez, Bergara, and Co., store.

Salas, Hermanos, store.

IN CALLE DE COCHRANE.

F. Huth, Grunning, and Co., Bodega.

Gutzmer and Co., shipchandlers.

Thomas Cockburn. Bodega.

Sebiattino, Hermano, shipchandlers.

Besa, Julianes, and Co., Bodega.

Jennings and Bowling-house.

And several lawyers' offices, which were in the alms of the houses destroyed. Green, Nicholson, and Co. have not saved a single book or document of any kind. Messrs F. Huth, Grunning, and Co. saved a few pieces of furniture, but the whole of their office with all their papers, was left in the fire. The dwelling-house of these gentlemen was, perhaps one of the most luxurious furnished houses on the west coast, being adorned with many valuable statues and paintings, and amongst the last a large equestrian portrait of the Emperor of Austria, presented by the Emperor to Mr. Hermitte, Austrian Consul. H. G. and Co., and Austrian Consul.

The locality of the disaster is what is called the Port, in which all the foreign mercantile houses are : and so close are they together, that had a breeze sprung up, it is not likely that the foreign houses would have been left standing.

CORDOBA.

The following is an account of the seizure of the printing-office of the 'Imparcial' of Cordoba:—

About six a.m., 4th February, a police official, attended by some armed men, presented himself at the office of the 'Imparcial,' and, leaving a sentinel at the door, stated that he had received orders from the Commandant-General and Chief of the Police to take prisoners all whom he might find inside. Luckily, there were only four persons within at the time, including Ribera, who came from Buenos Ayres, four months ago, to act as foreman.

Ribera told him that, as a foreigner, and without good reason, he had no right to be seized and turned out of his house. This appeal had no effect, for the doors were shut and sealed, and the workmen were taken, under a guard of soldiers, to the Chief of the Police. To his Worship they again stated that they were all foreigners, Spanish and French—that they were workmen and had nothing whatever to do with the affairs of the province, and that if the printing office was shut up, that was no reason why they should also be. All was useless, and they were walked off to the prison. When interviewed there, the Frenchman, Gaffin, was ordered, in company with another prisoner, to fill a bucket of water and clean out some of the upper cells. Rebosan, through the intercession of a stranger, was set at liberty, but he had to remain in the street, as for three days he could not recover the keys of his lodgings, and in this he succeeded only after much trouble.

The Commandante-general stated that till further orders the press would not be allowed to work. On the 13th Feb. Ribera passed the following note :—

"To the Chief of Police.

"The undersigned foreigner, partner in and manager of the printing establishment of the 'Imparcial,' wishes to know if nothing is to be allowed to be printed, or not, in that office, and if the prohibition issued by Commandante-General, can be took away the keys of the establishment, be still in force. These measures, as also the imprisonment of myself and employés, have caused me an ensuing no great injury. I request an answer to this, still holding myself entitled to proceed at the tribunals against whom may be violating my constitutional rights.

"JUAN RIBERIA."

Up to the 7th of March Ribeira has received no answer to the above.

BRAZILIAN ITEMS.

Assassination.—Captain Miguel Antonio Baldoino de Andrade has been barbarously murdered on his hacienda, Encantes, Brazil, by three slaves. The family has offered a large reward for the capture of the culprit—this is necessary, as the police are not celebrated for making active researches after criminals.

Shipwreck.—The 'Journal de Recife' has the following: With respect to the shipwreck of the British schooner Undine we have collected the following information. The Custom-house cutter arrived at Ponta de Fiedras, the place of the disaster, at a quarter past nine a.m. on the 14th inst., but on account of the shallowness of the water she could not get near the wreck. On the 15th and 16th the same men discontinued to land at the bay of Tabatinga and taking a small boat, they got on board the schooner at half-past 11 a.m. They found the vessel with seven feet of hold put off to lend assistance, but the captain refused to have the hatches opened. The customs took charge of her, and that day succeeded in saving some 570 casks of cod fish; which were stored on the beach, to be afterwards sent to Recife in the lighters sent for the vessel. It is supposed that all the cargo will be saved, but there is little hope of getting the vessel off.

Steamer Leo-cited-a Rio de Janeiro.—Under the name of 'Topemirim' was launched on the 28th ult., from the building yard of Sitbel Lane & Co., a new steamer, intended for the navigation of the river Itapomerim, in the province of Espirito Santo. She belongs to Major Cavetano Dias da Silvas.

Maritime Intelligence.

A Dutch schooner No. 201, bound for Montevideo, was spoken on the 19th December, in lat 7 north and long. 27 west.

Queenstown, Jan. 28, 1864—The Robert: lough, from Liverpool for Buenos Ayres, put in here damaged, with loss of water casks.

Elsbeth, Jan. 29—The Antelope,from Newport for Buenos Ayres, put in here on the 13th inst., leaking, and will have to discharge and be have down to repair

Londonderry, Jan. 29—The Lizzie from Clyde, for Montevideo, put into Lough Foyle on the 18th inst., with her cargo in a bad condition. She was towed to a dock here on the 23d, and has discharged here to undergo repairs.

Lambeth, Isle of Arran—On the 29th January the Earydice, for Buenos Ayres, was at anchor in Lambath bay.

CHILE.

The press seem sanguine of an arrangement being made between Chile and Bolivia.

Wheat is selling very slowly, and at low prices at Concepcion.

The Compañia rains are being razed to the ground, much to the satisfaction of the majority of the people.

Crime of a class seems common in Chile. In Mellopilla a house has been attacked and robbed. Wellington is generally one of the quietest villages in South America.

In Chañaral some chevaliers of industry have also made a descent.

In Santiago all is remarkably quiet.

Copiapo—This city, on the 20th and 22d ult., was again visited by severe earthquakes, but no damage done. The inmes are in a most flourishing condition; and it is reported that new votes of silver have been found in the Cerrode Vaca Muerta, about 16 leagues to the interior of Chamaral.

LOCAL EVENTS.

The Heat.—About Christmas time we were sustaining ourselves under the influence of a blasting, blistering, burning, almost tropical heat, with the idea that our sufferings would soon be past, and that when the Isles of March came we would, instead of fearing them, rather give a hearty welcome as the harbinger of better and cooler times. All our hopes are shattered, and, in fact, literally fizzled up: for we are still breathing the hot air of an oven, and, what's worse, there seems to be little or no chance of the weather breaking, and our enjoying any more cold weather. We tried by reading Sir Leonard M'Clintock's Search after Sir John Franklin, to fancy ourselves cool; but it was 'no go'—the awful distance between where we suffer and what we now feel only made us worse: and on attempting, for the eleventh time, Martin Tupper, we brought on a slight attack of bilious nervous fever, caused by disgust and violent exercise in pitching the rotten book to the other end of the patio. We have heard no Englishman, in talking Spanish, call 'asbiritos' 'cauler-cuters,' and on the Frenchman, we dare say we should, and at this rate we soon shall be. On Sunday a poor man died suddenly from the effects of the heat; and in the camp, we are told, many birds and cattle are dropping down dead from the same cause.

The Mole.—This city is not so remarkably fond of promenading that we can afford to lose about the only place where a breath of fresh air can be had. If things go on as they are at present, walking through a town in which man-traps and spring-guns are set will be a comparatively safe amusement to that of taking a stroll along that delightful construction, for it is a blessed lump of row under neither use ful nor ornamental, except one has a fancy for the Public, and even it is likely to be gratified if the authorities continue to patch it up with small pieces of different kinds of timber. Useful it certainly is not as a Mole, and as for a public promenade it is a deal too dangerous to be pleasant. On Sunday last we had it was yet light, a lady put her foot in one of the many holes, and her leg slipping through, she fell heavily, and it was only through a merciful fate that she did not break limb. After suffering severe pain, she was hauled out with great difficulty. There was a general feeling on the side that the Mole was to blame for the accident, as latterly we have abandoned the 'Hole in the Mole' question; but the fact of the matter is we have spoken about it until we have tired our readers. We therefore caution our friends about the Mole, once for all: every day new holes are appearing, and the fate of ladies and children frequent this dangerous promenade the better.

The Steamer Coleon—On Saturday last we had a small steamer, and on Sunday races, made her trial trip, and notwithstanding the heavy sea which was running, she made 10 knots an hour; in fact, it is expected, that when her machinery has been worked a little, she will go even faster.

Rosa—We are happy to hear that the fruit crops of the camp are raised last week, although in town not a drop fell. The camp are very green, and if the frost does not come to soon, we may hope to have a favourable season.

Reaction—There seems likely to be a strong reaction, after the forced gaiety resulting from the Lenten Carnival. The Opera Company, on the evening of Sunday next, commence the operatic season with the 'Barber,' which might almost count under the head of a religious performance. At Morón, a theatre is also to be opened on Sunday next, and we also are expected to make their debut on the boards of Buenos Ayres. One is a novelty, and that is a young Frenchlady, of great personal attractions. The latter can scarcely be said to be an untried actress, as she has, for some time past, been connected with the Bouffes Parisiens in Montevideo. We trust, that during the coming season the Italian Opera Company will give us some of the favourite operas of the English, such as we mentioned before, Bonnambula, La Fiolia di Rogerano, l'Elixir d'Amour, &c. And it is not too much for us to ask for these favourites, seeing that the French and Spanish inhabitants are the principal patrons of the 'lyric drama.' If these be given us, we will allow the Lutetian, Italian or Spanish opera to choose the best and most thrilling acts of neckbreaking.

Registered Letters—Nicholas Whitby, Esq., Thomas A. Fortin for Mrs. Reed and James Allen, care of P. Tarighon, Villa Lujon; William Raftery, care of Rev. A. Fahey, Buenos Ayres.

Oriental Law Courts—In the Montevideian list of suits we read the following:—Guardians of Horace Kendall appointed; Mr. W. M. Morgan, dentist, vs. Luis Ronco; Messrs. Zumaeumnan Faire vs. Eugene Arnaud; J. Lauquetti v. Charles Rogers.

Heirs of Robert Kenny—There is a tedious lawsuit going on in Salta about this case. We will shortly publish the particulars

Mr. John Bett.—The Rio papers announce this gentleman's death, adding that he was the inventor of the salsaparrilla tea.

London and Brazilian Bank.—In the judicial calendar of R. Janeyro we see an action by this company against D. Francisco Cardoso. The notes of this bank were declared legal tender on January 1st.

A Freachmen Murdered.—We read in the Correo of Rio that M. Eugene Peret was murdered in Peru. His body was found in a pipe of wine, and his desk was robbed of 20,000 silver dollars. The French Minister made an energetic protest, which might presage a complication.

Yellow Fever.—In the past month Rio Grande del Norte was desolated by this scourge.

EXCHANGE

March 21st.

Patacones opened at 29.10, ran up to 20.20, and closed weak at 29.10. Cash sales. 64,475. For Saturday, specie sold dearer than even for cash, 29.25; but there was a decided disinclination to purchasing on these terms, and the sales only amounted to 8000. For the end of the month 29.0 were asked and 29.15. On long dates buyers were very scarce, only $17,0 0 sold, the majority of which was for the middle of April. Total sales for the day, 143,475.

If the burning of the currency were only definitely arranged, there is every prospect that specie would come down considerably; but so long as it is a matter of doubt; so long as the bulls have it in their power to laugh at the idea and ridicule the Minister, so long will paper money fluctuate; it is, therefore, essential that we should know what the Minister is going to do. On the very best authority, we heard that M. Gonzales had promised to burn fourteen millions of paper money; that is to say, two millions per month for the last seven months, during which the burning has been so illegally and improperly suspended.

The Salto arrived from the Uruguay to-day, bringing the news that Caraballo was besieging Passandu, with four hundred men, and 4 Flores was coming up to assist him with the rest of the army. The news had no effect whatsoever on the paper money, as people are tired out with such nonsense.

In consequence of this being Holy Week, the Salto has postponed her departure until the 26th inst., and the Pavon it is said, will not leave before Sunday.

We hear the greatest complaints against the 'contadores' in the Custom-house. In fact, the whole of our port regulations are so monstrous that it something be not done, we expect the merchants and ship masters will think a public meeting, as the abuse is becoming so great, it will lead to most serious consequences.

SAVINGS BANK
BANK MAUÁ & C°
No. 103 calle de Cangallo. —
BUENOS-AYRES.

The immense advantages of Accounts Current are now so generally felt, and appreciated in the 2 great emporiums o the River Plate—Montevideo & Buenos Ayres—that there are very few Merchants who fail to keep one at he Bank in which they place the most confidence

The Bank of Mauá & Co. in Montevideo has already provided for the working class in that city, a safe & profitable depositary for their savings.

The sums deposited in that most important institution are daily increasing and already reach a very large amount.

These advantages have not hitherto been enjoyed in this city by an immense number of Clerks, artisans, country-men & servants of all classes & conditions, who are equally interested in putting their savings out at interest, thus providing themselves with a secure fund in case of need, sickness or old age, the end of spending them in the immoral gambling, in lotteries and other frivolities

The Bank of Mauá and Co. of this city following the example of their firm in Montevideo now offer the same facilities in this city and will open on the 1st October a "Savings Bank" at No 103 calle Cangallo from 9 a. m. to 2 p. m. on week days, and on Sundays and holidays from 10 a. m. to 12 m. for the reception of the savings of the classes already mentioned.

The Bank will deliver to each depositor a Pass Book in which will be entered the amount deposited and withdrawn

The depositor is permitted at any time to withdraw the whole or part of the sum deposited, in the former case the interest will be calculated up to date,

The Bank of Mauá and Co. is sufficiently known to the public by the benefit derived from the course of its operations which are regulated on the surest and soundest principles and at all times directed to promote the general welfare.

The Bank of Mauá and Co. are also persuaded that this new branch of their business will render immense service to the working classes of Buenos Ayres and its neighbourhood.

Buenos Ayres September 19th 1863.

p. p. Mauá & Co.
WILLIAM LESLIE.

CONDITIONS.

1st. The Bank receives at interest any sum from Twenty five dollars currency or one silver dollar upwards.

2nd. The interest allowed is six per cent [6 p$] per annum which is liquidated every six months.

3rd. The depositor can at any time retire the whole or part of the money deposited.

4th. Once the amount deposited exceeds Twenty five thousand dollars currency, or one thousand dollars silver the depositor if he wishes can open an account current according to the rules established by the Bank.

5th. In case the depositor loses his Pass Book it can be replaced by another on paying twelve dollars currency, and advertising the loss in the public newspapers.

ENGLISH GRAMMAR SCHOOL,
CALLE LARGA DE BARRACAS
Dor—Mr. Dongerel, (of the London University College.)

This Establishment, which from its foundation has been patronised by the principal families of Buenos Ayres, is an exact reproduction of an English School, where a sound commercial education combined with the acquisition of the French and Spanish languages is imparted to the pupils, based upon the same system as in all first class European institutions of the kind.

An ever-watchful and constant supervision, and a strict maintenance of order and propriety, are a sufficient guarantee in the moral conduct whatever of the pupils are carefully attended to.

The different branches taught in the English Grammar School comprise the English, French and Spanish languages, History, Geography, Arithmetic, and Book Keeping in all its parts, Writing, and Religious Instruction.

Extra branches, such as Latin, Mathematics, German, Music and Drawing, are day taught by special masters.

The situation of the English Grammar School, in one of the most delightful Quintas of the Calle Largo de Barracas, at the very gates of the city, in one of the most healthful and picturesque of the environs of Buenos Ayres.
